

Business Implementation Strategies Training Program

The Business Implementation Strategies Training Program is organized and modularized in a way that allows your organization to build a base of project management knowledge through our overview sessions, and then make a determination if Project Management is a career path they want to pursue.

Project Management Overview

Implementing project management methodologies can be a major culture shift for many organizations. The Project Management Overview module explains the fundamentals of project management methodology in real-world terms that everyone can relate to.

For Bus. Mgmt, IT Mgmt., Business Users involved with new project development, IT staff. Length: 3 hours

Business Analysis Fundamentals Overview

Projects with vague or incomplete requirements are doomed to fail. Too often projects proceed with incomplete requirements because there was no methodology in place to facilitate the requirements definition process. The Business Analysis Fundamentals Overview module covers the basics of effective requirements gathering.

For: IT Project Mgrs, IT Bus. Analysts. Length: 3 hours

Project Portfolio Management Overview

The Project Portfolio Management Overview module introduces the concepts, key success factors and the processes involved in identifying, prioritizing, managing and controlling projects in a portfolio to make the most efficient use of your resources.

For Business Mgmt, IT Mgmt, Business Users involved with new project development, IT Staff. Length: 3 hours

Project Server and SharePoint Overview

Project Server is a project management automation tool that helps track resource allocations, project progress and status reporting. The Project Server and SharePoint Overview module introduces the benefits of Project Server to your project management implementation.

For: IT Project Mgrs, IT Bus. Analysts. Length: 3 hours.

Project Management Skills Development

The Project Management Skills Development module provides a step-by-step approach to the project management methodology, including the project process groups, scope management, risk identification and management, issue identification and management, change management, and the tools and techniques that ensure best practices.

For: IT Project Mgrs, IT Bus. Analysts. Length: 3 hours.

Writing and Managing Requirements Documentation Skills Development

Producing effective requirements documentation is essential to project success. The Writing and Managing Requirements Documentation Skills Development module guides attendees through a structured approach to developing clear and accurate requirements documents, including risk analysis, tracing business requirements to requirements specifications, and developing use cases.

For: IT Project Mgrs, IT Bus. Analysts. Length: 3 hours.

PMP Exam Prep

Our PMP Exam Prep class is designed to take your staff interested in Project Management through the preparation of sitting for the Project Management Professional Certification test.

We conduct the PMP Exam Prep classes on a weekly schedule which allows the students to read and process the materials provided with the classes at a reasonable pace. People who have taken our PMP Exam Prep class have a 99% pass rate for the Project Management Professional certification test.